As a Matter of Black

EXHIBITION OPENING RECEPTION

MUCE presents its annual exhibition "As a Matter of Black, a Seat at the Table." This show is a collective of three visual artists who will explore the Black life experience through the topics of family, food and policy. The artists will bring the concept to life through visual painting, sculpture and storytelling. A table installation will be included as part of the exhibit and utilized as an interactive art piece during the opening reception.

The opening ceremony will take place on Jan. 4 and will include a dinner reception hosted by a local Pompano Beach chef.

Following the dinner, there will be a Q&A with both the visual artists and chef.

MUCE is an arts production company that installs and curates pop-up exhibitions to activate corporate and community brands. Working in heritage neighborhoods, MUCE also brings rich cultural programming to hyper local spaces through live painters, performers, festivals and niched cultural experiences.

WHEN: The Opening reception is Jan. 4 from 6 to 9pm

Culinary Business Workshop

Pompano Beach's Community Redevelopment Agency (CRA) has created a Culinary Incubator Program at the E. Pat Larkins Community Center. The incubator program will hopefully blossom into an active community kitchen and culinary center. The CRA envisions the center becoming an economic engine for the community, providing burgeoning culinary entrepreneurs with guidance, support and a kitchen to help grow their businesses.

The facility will also operate as a commercial kitchen where food trucks, caterers and other food service providers, from any city, can rent the space to prepare food and receive the technical assistance needed to establish and grow their businesses. In addition, the space will host cooking classes by local chefs and free programs to introduce local youth to culinary careers.

The Incubator Program has started a series of eight workshops. The second workshop will take place on Jan. 9 and is free for all Pompano Beach residents. Please fill out an application in advance on the CRA website, pompanobeachcra.com (click events from homepage). For more information please contact Gladys Cameron at AroundTheDinnerTableLLC@gmail.com or by phone at 954-706-3565.

WHEN: Wednesday, Jan. 9 from 6 to 8:30pm

WHERE: E. Pat Larkins Community Center, 520 Dr. Martin Luther King Blvd., Pompano Beach
