27th Annual Florida Renaissance Festival

BY DANIELLE CHARBONNEAU

Every February and March, the northwest corner of Quiet Waters Park in Deerfield Beach transforms from a simple nature park into a grand and whimsical immersive world inspired by the Renaissance era. A castle entrance beckons guests to enter through its arches; a king and queen perch on their thrones to watch knights joust; children thrust lances through a golden ring while riding a wooden horse down a steep greased cable called a Quintain; performers recite Shakespeare and perform daring acts of acrobatic bravery; adults learn to throw axes and watch expert demonstrations, such as an archer who can nail a target with his handmade wooden bow from a spectacular distance. At this celebration, hungry festivalgoers sink their jaws into juicy turkey legs and guzzle cold beer while admiring the elaborate costumes of their fellow lads and ladies.

"Our festival provides people of all ages the chance to escape into an alternate universe with invigorating activities, and our growing assortment of themed weekends," said Bobby Rodriguez, the founder and producer of the Florida Renaissance Festival.

The Florida Renaissance Festival attracts more than 100,000 annual attendees and this year will be celebrating its 27th year in existence, its 20th year in Deerfield Beach. More than two million people have participated in the festival since it began.

This year over 100 artisans and 100 performers will be in attendance. Every one of the festival's seven weekends boasts a new theme, including: "Game of Thrones" (Feb. 9 - 11); Time Travelers and Steampunk (Feb. 16 - 18); Vikings and Barbarians (Feb 23 & 24); Bodacious Bodices and Wenches (March 2 & 3); Swashbucklers and Sirens (March 9 & 10); Kilts and Colleens (March 16 & 17); and lastly, Magic, Witches and Wizards (March 23 & 24). Attendees are highly encouraged to wear costumes in theme.

WHEN: Saturdays and Sundays from 10am to sunset from Feb. 9 to March 24, plus Monday Feb. 11 (the first weekend of the festival) and Monday Feb. 18 (President's Day).

WHERE: Quiet Waters Park, 401 S. Powerline Rd., Deerfield Beach

COST: One day adult admission is $25; Kids ages 6-11 are $12; Children under 5 are free. A season pass for all seven weekends is $112 for adults and $59 for kids. Parking is complimentary and VIP parking is available for $20. Entrance to Quiet Waters Park is $1.50 per person. Visit ren-fest.com to purchase tickets in advance. Tickets will also be available on site.

Valentine's Day

Here's some out-of-the-box options for you and your sweetie on Valentine's Day:

Couples Wine-Down Forging Workshop

Looking for a "hot" date-night activity for Valentine's Day but tired of the same old dinner date? Bring your Valentine to a unique workshop and learn the basics of blacksmithing. You and your date will create a beautiful finished project together. The evening will include entertaining instructors, wine, cheese and all the tools and materials necessary. No experience is required. Choose one of two dates.

WHEN: Feb. 14 or Feb. 15 from 7pm to 10pm

WHERE: The Guild Urban Craft & Folk Art School, 205 NW 16th St., Pompano Beach

COST: $85; Register at guildfl.com/classes-workshops

Love's a Bitch Comedy Show

Comedian Lindsay Glazer will join her comedian friends Darius Culpepper (MC), Michael Murillo and Ricky Reyes at ArtServe for Glazer's trademark standup "Love's a B, an AlphaB!" It will be a night for poking fun at love.

WHEN: Feb. 14; doors open at 8:30pm; show starts at 9pm

WHERE: ArtServe, 1350 E. Sunrise Blvd., Fort Lauderdale

COST: General admission is $20; VIP package is $30; tickets can be purchased in advance on EventBrite.

To check out Lindsay's comedy, visit youtube.com/lindsayglazer

36th Annual St. Coleman Italian Festival

In 1984, the St. Coleman Italian Festival was just a simple spaghetti dinner with pony rides. Now, the festival has become a spectacularly big carnival with 15 adult rides, nine kids rides, food vendors, continuous music and live entertainment.

The festival serves as one of the largest fundraisers of the year for St. Coleman elementary school and parish. In past years, proceeds from the festival renovated the administration wing of the school, and built the outdoor gymnasium, media center and parish hall kitchen. Bring your family out to enjoy the fun.

WHEN: Feb. 15 from 1-11pm; Feb. 16 from noon to 11pm; Feb. 17 from noon to 8pm

WHERE: 1200 S. Federal Highway, Pompano Beach

COST: Admission and parking are free; food, rides and games are available for purchase at the festival. Ride every ride once for $20, or buy individual ride tickets. A variety of pre-sale ride wristbands are available at a discount online at italianfest.org.

4th Annual St. Coleman Cornhole Tournament

In this annual cornhole tournament players compete for bragging rights, a traveling trophy and recognition in the St. Coleman church bulletin. Qualifier begins Sunday, Feb. 18 at noon. The top 16 point scorers qualify for tournament play. The single elimination tournament runs from 4:30 to 8pm. Games go to 15 net scores. Players will throw eight bags for total points. Visit italianfest.org for more information.

St. Ambrose Carnival & Music Festival

Live music all weekend long, tons of rides, food and fun await families at the St. Ambrose annual carnival. The selection of bands this year brings performers from Broward, Miami-Dade, Palm Beach and beyond. Festival organizers say the music will be the highlight of this year's festivities.

Opera Fusion at the Pompano Beach Cultural Center

Opera Fusion, in collaboration with Gulfcoast Opera, presents a delightful production, fully staged with a chamber orchestra. Don Pasquale is an opera buffa in three acts by Italian composer Gaetano Donizetti with a libretto by Donizetti and Giovanni Ruffini. It premiered at the Théâtre Italien in Paris on January 3, 1843. The premiere was a smashing success, and was quickly produced across the great opera houses of Europe.

Widely regarded as a masterpiece of comic operas of the period, Don Pasquale remains a fixture among the world's opera houses. It is filled with bright and colorful vocal writing and skillful depiction of plot and character. The characters derive from types that were common in the many comic operas of the period: a clever leading lady, her winsome admirer, an old buffoon who hopes to outwit them and a conniving fellow who takes the side of the young lovers.

WHEN: Saturday, Feb. 16; doors open at 6:30pm; show at 7:30pm

WHERE: Pompano Beach Cultural Center, 50 W. Atlantic Blvd., Pompano Beach

COST: Adults $35; Student $25. Tickets can be purchased at the box office at the cultural center, 50 W. Atlantic Blvd., Pompano Beach. Box office hours are Monday through Friday 10am to 6pm.

The Jimi Hendrix Experience at the Amp

You might remember Hendrix for famously burning his guitar on stage at the 1967 Monterey Pop Festival, or for his electric National Anthem performance at Woodstock. You can re-live the musical glory days of Hendrix at the Jimi Hendrix Experience. This multi-artist, sensory experience celebrates the insanity and genius of one of America's greatest guitar players. Hendrix is long hailed as one of rock's greatest innovators, and this latest edition of the annual tour will be the most ambitious one to date, including one stop at the Pompano Beach Amphitheater. Artists performing in the tour include Billy Cox, Joe Satriani, Dave Mustaine, Jonny Lang, Dweezil Zappa and Eric Johnson, among others.

WHEN: Sunday, March 3; doors open at 6:30pm; show is at 7:30pm

WHERE: Pompano Beach Amphitheater, 1806 NE Sixth St., Pompano Beach

COST: Tickets start at $43 plus ticketing fees and can be purchased by visiting the Pompano Amp website, theamppompano.org.

Seventh Annual Plants & People Day

WILL CELEBRATE POMPANO BEACH'S DISTINCTION AS A WILDLIFE HABITAT

BY DONNA TORREY

Pompano Beach is part of a migratory flyway and one of the few places in the continental United States where birds and butterflies stop over during the winter months, making it a perfect place for ecotourism. In 2010 the City of Pompano Beach became a Certified Community Wildlife Habitat. Pompano Beach is the 42nd city in the country and largest city in Florida to receive the honor, which was largely accomplished by an all-volunteer team consisting of members from Pompano Proud and the Grow Wild! initiative.

More than 300 backyards have been declared as Certified Wildlife Habitat sites. In addition, nine parks, nine businesses and 11 school grounds have been certified through the program. Pompano Beach has now been certified for seven consecutive years. The annual Plants & People Day celebrates the accomplishment.

Plants & People Day is hosted by Pompano Proud, a nonprofit organization dedicated to the beautification of Pompano Beach. Since 1986, Pompano Proud has been promoting, through direct action and education, awareness of aesthetic and conservation policies affecting the city. Projects have included planting trees, community clean-ups, protection of sensitive habitats and guidance for homeowners wishing to plant sensible landscapes. If you'd like to get involved, visit pompanoproud.com.

WHEN: This year's Plants & People Day will take place on Feb. 10 from 10am to 3pm

WHERE: Centennial Park surrounding the Sample-McDougal House (on the corner of 10th St. and 5th Ave. in Pompano Beach). The event will feature vendors, speakers, food and hourly raffle prizes.
